CONTEST RULES

Entries should include the following: 1) Discuss your personal reaction to this book; 2) describe a character or scene that you found memorable and tell why; and 3) explain why you would like to meet the author.

WRITING GUIDELINES

Entries should be no longer than 300 words. Shorter entries are acceptable. Please include the word count at the bottom of the page. Essays that exceed 300 words will be disqualified.

Entries should be submitted on plain white paper, preferably typed. Handwritten entries should be written in black pen on lined paper. Whether handwritten or typed, all entries should be final edited copies with all errors corrected. Entries sent on 'cute' paper or with illustrations will be disqualified.

All words should be spelled correctly. Entries with misspellings will be disqualified.

No more than 3 entries should be submitted from a single classroom. These, if part of a class project, should be the best of the group.

Winners should be prepared to read their winning essays at the FOCAL Award Luncheon.

The originals of the winning entries will be presented to the FOCAL Award winning author at the luncheon.
