

Manhattan Beach
Unified School District

Teaching to Our Students' Future, Not to Our Past

Manhattan Beach Unified School District

At A Glance

Manhattan Beach, California

County—Los Angeles
 Population—35,000
 Median Household Income—
 $107,750
 Residents with a College
 Degree—73.3%
 Management, Professional, and
 Related Occupations—64.3%

- ◆ Enrollment—6,300 Students
- ◆ Number of Schools—8
 - Preschool—1
 - Elementary—5
 - Middle—1
 - High—1
- ◆ Total Permanent Staff
 Certificated—362
 Classified—304

- ◆ The Manhattan Beach Education Foundation and PTAs support programs and services such as libraries, science and physical education, technology, and instructional and health assistants totaling in excess of $4 million annually.

- ◆ High school ranks in the top 2% of public high schools in California with a 2008 API score of 864

Assessment and Accountability

Percent of students at proficient or advanced on the California Standards Tests in English/Language Arts and mathematics in comparison to the state average.

Grade	ELA MBUSD	ELA State	Math MBUSD	Math State
2	88	48	93	59
3	83	38	95	61
4	94	55	96	61
5	88	48	89	51
6	89	47	83	44
7	92	49	80	41
8	86	45
9	82	49
10	77	41
11	72	37

- ◆ MBUSD ranks fifth out of all unified school districts in the state with an API growth of 909.
- ◆ Graduation Rate 2006-2007—97.3%
- ◆ Drop Out Rate 2006-2007—2.3%
- ◆ MBUSD Revenues in 2007-2008
 Federal—$1,377,359
 State—$46,147,491
 Local—$6,124,303
- ◆ Current Expense of Education Per Student as of 2007-2008
 General Education—$4,880
 Special Education—$17,515
- ◆ California Unified School District Expenditure Ranking
 MBUSD ranks 669 out of 964

- ◆ Senior Class of 2008
 Matriculating to College—97%
 Four-Year Colleges—66%
 Two-Year Colleges—34%

Other post graduate choices include military, mission work, technical study, and the work force.

- ◆ High school enrolls 638 students in 18 Advanced Placement courses
- ◆ High school offers 17 career technical education courses in partnership with the Southern California Regional Occupational Center
- ◆ Strong community partnerships with the City of Manhattan Beach, Chevron, and Northrop Grumman.

Recent District Recognitions

- * Grand View Elementary received national recognition for their public-private partnership to raise environmental awareness and sustainability.
- * Pacific Elementary School has been honored as a 2009 California Service Learning Leader School.
- * Elementary band and strings students were selected to perform in the movie Eagle Eye.
- * Mira Costa High School's Model United Nations students consistently win the coveted "Best Delegation" award and amass individual gavels for excellence.
- * The MCHS orchestra and choir have been invited to perform in the Walt Disney Concert Hall in June 2009.

SAT I

	MBUSD	CA
Math	581	515
Verbal	569	499
Writing	577	498