

BookTree Conveniently Lends You High-Quality Age-Appropriate Children's Books

Book Display – Fri., Nov., 15th

Reading aloud with your child stimulates brain development, builds vocabulary, develops reading and writing skills, and enhances creativity. These profound benefits stay with your child for life. How do you ensure a steady and varied supply of extraordinary and engaging books?

BookTree's monthly book-lending program, available at Grand View Elementary School, conveniently addresses this challenge for busy parents. The program infuses the home read-aloud experience with the highest quality of illustrated children's literature available, and exposes children to a wide variety of writing and illustrative styles, concepts, and themes.

Each month, BookTree delivers to Grand View Elementary School personalized tote containing ten illustrated, age-appropriate literary gems for you to take home and read with your child. Enjoy the books for a month, then return the tote and pick up a fresh batch.

Each set of books balances fiction vs. non-fiction, stories vs. concepts, authors/illustrators/styles, and breadth of subject matter. Sophistication levels range from infant up to about age 7, meeting the needs of a child as he or she grows.

The first month is FREE, and there is no contract, so why not try it out? To sign up for your free tote or to learn more, please visit www.booktree.us.

We invite you to a book display on Fri., Nov, 15th at the lunch tables to browse sample books, learn more about BookTree, and sign up for a free tote!
