

Name _____

One More Acorn, by Don Freeman

As winter nears, Earl the Squirrel searches for the acorns he stashed in the parks of Washington, D.C. Iconic author/illustrator Don Freeman began this story in 1963. His son Roy completed it with help from an illustrator almost 50 years later.

Extension: use the reverse of the coloring sheet to create rubbings of a few collected leaves.

Find the Alligator