

GRAND VIEW SCHOOL
PROJECT ENRICHING READING PROFICIENCY
SUMMER COMPUTER READING PROGRAM 2014

Spring 2014

Dear Parents,

Back by popular demand for summer 2014, is Grand View School's Summer Computer Reading Program. This program is tailored to fit your child's reading needs and summer schedule because YOU set up the days and times and provide the support to your child when needed. And it is FREE; it does not cost you one cent!

The upcoming parent training schedule is below. Kathi Wagner will be training parents in both of the computer reading programs used in PROJECT ERP. If you wish to register for a training, complete the 2nd page Registration Form and return it to Grand View School (attn.: Kathi Wagner) no later than THURSDAY MAY 15TH. Because of the limited number of computers in the school's computer lab, training classes will be closed at 25 participants.

Please bring your child for the grade level training you are attending. For example, if you want your child who is currently a kindergarten student to participate over the summer, then you will bring that child with you to the training. This provides you the opportunity to see and experience a "real" child work in the program.

Here is a brief description of the two computer programs:

1. Lexia Reading – Fun, interactive learning and practice of important foundation reading skills through a colorful, game format. Appropriate for all grade levels. There are 3 program levels: Early Reading (K – 1st grade skills), Primary Reading (1st – 3rd grade skills), and Strategies for Older students (1st – 6th+ grade skills).

2. Read Live Reading – An intervention program with an engaging curriculum that provides practice for fluency, phonics, vocabulary, and comprehension. It supports students from 1st grade to adults.
