

Name _____

SUMMER READING INCENTIVE
FOR STUDENTS ENTERING FIFTH GRADE
AT GRAND VIEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

RETURN THIS COMPLETED SHEET
TO MRS. SNIVELY IN THE FALL
TO RECEIVE A REWARD!

SUMMER IS HERE! It's time to read, relax, and have fun with books at your public library. Introduce yourself to the Children's Librarian, and ask about the exciting Summer Reading Program* in store for you.

Answer the following questions to become more familiar with your public library:

1. The title of one book that received the CALDECOTT AWARD:

_____ The CALL NUMBER on the spine is: _____

2. The title of one book that received the NEWBERY AWARD:

_____ The CALL NUMBER on the spine is: _____

3. I found NON-FICTION books about the AMERICAN REVOLUTION. One title:

_____ The CALL NUMBER on the spine is: _____

4. I found the book "THE PHANTOM TOLLBOOTH." The author's name is:

_____ The CALL NUMBER on the spine is: _____

5. Four books I read independently over the summer:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

*Studies indicate that students who participate in a Summer Reading Program are more likely to read at or above their grade level than those who don't, and those reading above grade level are more likely to retain those skills into the next school year. For more information visit www.readingrockets.org.

For a list of elementary books recommended for summer pleasure reading visit www.mbusd.org. The MBUSD elementary library media specialists update the list every year.

www.grandviewlibrary.info