SUMMER IS HERE! It's time to read, relax, and have fun with books at your public library. Introduce yourself to the Children's Librarian, and ask about the exciting Summer Reading Program* in store for you.

Answer the following questions to become more familiar with your public library:

1. I found the PICTURE BOOKS section. One title from this section:

2. I found the CHILDREN'S NON-FICTION section. One title from this section:

3. Four books I read this summer all by myself (or were read to me):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

This summer I (circle all that apply):

Set the Table Prepared a Snack Poured a Beverage Made a Book

Played a Board Game Drew a Picture and Mailed It Helped a Friend

Ran Outside Washed My Hair by Myself Sang a Song Had a Puppet Show

*Studies indicate that students who participate in a Summer Reading Program are more likely to read at or above their grade level than those who don't, and those reading above grade level are more likely to retain those skills into the next school year.
