

October is Walk to School Month!

In 2012 countries from around the world dedicated the month of October to walking to school. Come join the world in this commitment to our children and Earth.

Throughout the month of October, keep track of the days you've walked to school. Five winners will receive Walking School Bus bags and gear, PLUS have their name announced during the morning announcements. "Super Bragging Rights!" Look for the tracking sheet in the Tuesday Envelope.

Kick off the month by walking to school Wednesday 10/02 and come to the upper playground, at the flagpole for a special hand stamp.

On Wednesday, October 9th – celebrate the 3rd Birthday of the Walking School Bus by walking to school and meeting "the bus" on the upper playground for a photo opportunity between 8:00am and 8:15am. After school we'll serve birthday cake in the Bus' honor at the lunch tables.

Week of October 14th – Nominate your walking route to be an official Walking School Bus Route and Safe Route to School. Nominations will be collected that week and routes that are selected will win a Pinkberry gift card.

Week of October 21st – The two classrooms with the most walkers for the week will win pedometers.

Week of October 28th – Let's finish strong and walk every day this week!
The two classrooms with the most walkers for this final week will win a classroom pizza party!
